

2020-2021 Online Compliance Training

Course

Learning Objectives

Code of Conduct: Workplace Conduct

The code of conduct establishes the foundation of the institution's compliance with complex legal and ethical standards. This module covers discriminatory, harassing, disrespectful, and offensive behaviors, including that threatens employee safety and well-being. The course teaches employees how workforces come from and work in a wide variety of cultural and legal contexts.

Diversity and Inclusion EDU

This course explores power, communication, identity, and privilege through the unique experiences of real people. The course will help faculty and staff think about the importance of a respectful working environment and the barriers that prevent full participation. By gaining a better appreciation for shared experiences of difference, shared expectations of respect, and a shared need to feel appreciated and belong, faculty and staff are encouraged to identify how they can create a more inclusive and respectful workplace.

FERPA Basics

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act \(FERPA\) establishes student data privacy guidelines for any educational institution that receives Department of Education (DOE) funding. Protecting students' privacy and rights under FERPA is the responsibility of all faculty and staff.

This course provides an overview of the regulation, along with helping learners to gain a better understanding of the issues to consider when handling or disclosing education records, and the FERPA rules that apply in situations faculty or staff may face in the course of their work.
