

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)
TCU Online Compliance Training
2020-2021

1. Whom should I contact if I need assistance?

Contact Human Resources or the Office of Compliance at hrcompliance@tcu.edu.

2. Are the compliance training courses mandatory?

As a TCU employee, you are required to complete the annual online compliance training. Employees include faculty, exempt and non-exempt staff, temporary staff, and student employees. Thank you in advance for your early completion.

The following courses are assigned to TCU employees for the 2020-2021 Compliance Cycle:

Student Employees:

Preventing Harassment & Discrimination with Title IX/Clery module

All TCU, Brite Divinity School, and TCU and UNTHSC School of Medicine Employees (including temporary employees):

- Code of Conduct: Workplace Conduct
- FERPA Basics
- Protecting Youth
- Diversity and Inclusion EDU
- Preventing Harassment & Discrimination with Title IX/Clery module

Non-exempt, temporary, and student employees must complete courses during scheduled working hours.

3. I have temporary employees who will be working for the university less than a week. Are they required to complete the compliance training even though they are employed for only a short period time? Do I need to pay them for their time spent to complete the trainings?

Yes, all TCU employees, regardless of length of employment, are required to complete mandatory compliance training. Yes, TCU non-exempt, temporary, and student employees must complete their training during scheduled working hours and be paid for their time.

4. I completed the required compliance training last year. Why am I required to complete it again?

TCU is committed to creating and maintaining a safe academic and professional environment, in which we work, teach, and study. To remain in the forefront of best practices and to comply with federal mandates, TCU is renewing its institutional commitment to support training on an annual basis.

5. I recently completed the required Alliance for Children. Am I required to take the Protecting Youth compliance course?

Yes. All TCU, Brite and School of Medicine employees are required to complete the assigned mandatory training.

6. I have a certificate acknowledging I completed the Alliance for Children course. Will this certificate meet the same requirement of completing the Protecting Youth course?

No. All employees must complete the Protecting Youth online course, regardless of completion status of Alliance for Children.

7. I completed this course at my former employer/institution within the last two years. Am I required to complete training at Texas Christian University?

While you may have completed similar training, perhaps with the same vendor, our courses are designed specifically for the TCU community. The courses include resources and policies specific to Texas Christian University.

8. I am currently taking the Preventing Harassment & Discrimination with Title IX/Clery module course and I am very uncomfortable with the content and need to talk with someone.

TCU Employees and graduate students should contact the TCU Director of Employee Relations by calling Human Resources at 817-257-7790. Undergraduate students should contact Campus Life at 817-257-7926.

9. How soon am I required to complete the mandatory trainings?

TCU employees must complete the courses within 30 days of assignment.

10. I need an extension* to complete my training. What do I do?

TCU employees must complete their courses within 30 days of assignment. The Compliance Cycle ends April 30, 2021 at 5:00 pm CDT and access to the training will be suspended after that date/time.

*Extensions may be granted for approved family or medical-related leave.

11. Is there a penalty for non-completion of mandatory courses?

Employees who do not complete assigned courses are subject to ineligibility for merit increases as well as an unsatisfactory performance rating.

12. Will my supervisor or department head know about my completion or non-completion status?

Yes, monthly course completion status reports are sent to the Chancellor, Provost, and Vice Chancellors.

13. My supervisor told me I was assigned mandatory training, but I did not receive the email. What do I do?

Please ensure that you have set up your TCU email account during the onboarding process. Once the onboarding process is complete, the compliance course invitations will be sent to your TCU email account. Please check your inbox for an email from "Texas Christian University." Additionally, you may access your courses via the TCU portal (my.tcu.edu).

14. I am a biweekly paid, hourly employee (non-exempt, temporary, or student employee). Am I be paid to complete my online compliance training?

Yes, best practice is for non-exempt, temporary, and student employees to complete assigned courses during normal working hours. Completing job-related, required compliance training is considered compensable hours.

16. I do not have time to finish the course(s) in “one sitting.” What should I do?

You may complete courses in “multiple sittings*.” The courses are self-paced, you may complete sections, log out, and your work is saved. You may begin where you left off the next time you log in.

*Protecting Youth course requires completion of some sections in one sitting

17. What type or brand of technology device or browser is required to complete the trainings?

Google Chrome® is the recommended browser. Other browsers may require Adobe Flash for multimedia content.

- Tablets: iOS version 9.3 or later running on iPad 2 or later
- Smartphones: NOT currently supported.
- Screen Readers: Firefox with NVDA and the most recent versions of JAWS/IE

18. I am unable to sign in and complete the training on my smart phone. What should I do?

Smart phones are not supported - use a tablet, laptop, or desktop computer to complete the required training.

19. The video(s) are freezing or taking too long to load. What should I do?

We recommend that you use Chrome or Firefox as your browser for these courses. If you are using a different browser try one or all of the following:

- Close all other applications and tabs (Facebook, iTunes, YouTube, etc.).
- Try viewing on full screen mode (Windows, press F11/Mac click View menu on the browser menu and select “full screen”, Chromebook, press F4).
- Disable popup blockers and 3rd party toolbars
- Enable 3rd party cookies
- Reboot your compute
- If on a wireless connection, try a wired connection
- Try accessing the course on a different internet connection (computer lab, library, home)
- Try accessing at a different time of day (i.e., morning rather than late at night)

20. I am still having trouble accessing the courses after trying the above suggestions. What do I do?

Send an email to hrcompliance@tcu.edu detailing the problems that you are experiencing. You may also contact the Everfi 24/7/365 technical support center to speak/chat with a live agent or submit a ticket - visit support.everfi.com.

21. I am trying to play one of the videos in my course, but it will not play. What do I do?

- Check if accessibility mode is ON. Accessibility mode is a feature for users with hearing/sight impairments to use alongside an additional reader program. This may affect how videos play. If accessibility mode is ON and you are not using a reader program, turn it OFF the Accessibility mode and PLAY again.
- If it is a flash course, make sure you have Adobe Flash Player installed and enabled.
- Use Google Chrome, Safari, or the most updated version of Firefox.
- Clear the cache in your Desktop Browser;
- Close all instances of your browser, open it and try the course again.
- If you are using Microsoft Edge, exit the program, and restart using a different browser. For optimum results, use Google Chrome, Safari, or Firefox.
