Administrative Highlights

Associate Dean of Research and Graduate Studies, AddRan College of Liberal Arts, TCU (June 2025–)

- Managed degree completion and graduation audits for graduate students across six academic programs.
- Supervised budgets and operations for graduate programs in English and History.
- Organized events to highlight research and creative activity: Faculty Research Spotlight lunches, Distinguished Faculty lecture, AddRan Student Research and Creativity Symposium.
- Advised the dean regarding Center for Texas Studies, Center for Languages and Intercultural Global Connection, Center for Digital Expression, and the Institute for Urban Innovation.

- Worked with Office of Research and Creative Activity to advance university knowledge production, promote faculty achievements, and identify opportunities for external funding and partnerships.
- Collaborated with Office of Graduate Studies and program directors to provide support for students, faculty, and programs.

Director of Graduate Studies, Department of English, TCU (June 2017–May 2020)

- Chaired monthly Graduate Program Committee meetings, including spring review of all applicants, decision processes, and queue for offers.
- Coordinated ongoing recruitment and annual on-campus Visit Day event for prospective students.
- Supervised onboarding for all new students, especially international students, including review of transcripts/syllabi to determine transfer credit eligibility.
- Conducted mandatory formal advising for 50-60 graduate students each semester, coordinated annual review of first-year MA and PhD students, and led professional development events.
- Coordinated diversity initiatives ranging from course vetting to recruitment (e.g., GRE contact lists, direct emails to HBCUs and HSIs in Texas).
- Managed Graduate Financial Aid Request Forms (spring, summer, and fall funding), requests for travel funding, and proposals for professional development grants.
- Led portfolio development workshops (e.g., CV, cover letter, teaching philosophy), promoted conference submissions, and coached through mock interviews.
- Developed groundwork for alternative pathways to academic careers (Alt-Ac) resources, programming, and advisement—including AddRan summer graduate internships.
- Prepared annual budget request and projections, including a stipend raise for PhD students and a program transformation to add one year to graduate funding package.
- Conducted a thorough revision and department-wide review of Graduate Program Policies.
- Initiated and implemented first ever full-year advanced scheduling plan for graduate courses.
- Created and submitted 96 different new course proposals—with unique syllabi—through both undergraduate council and graduate council processes for the Accelerated English MA program.
- Converted paper-based workflow to integrated Excel databases for advising, degree-progress tracking, allocation of funding assignments, and rotation of faculty graduate course teaching.
- Created online program hub for graduate program documentation, resources, and submissions workflow (e.g., announcements, file archive, surveys, funding requests).
- Prepared documentation for curricular review, coordinating with Sibson Consulting (The Segal Group) to aggregate 10 years of unstructured data from departmental archives, Institutional Research, and other sources.
- Managed emergency funding and protocols for graduate students and a wide range of policy, procedural, and personnel concerns during the outbreak semester of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Chair, Department of English, TCU (June 2009–December 2012)

- Supervised the overhaul of Ph.D. programs, resulting in revised curriculum, changes to structure of qualifying exams, and clearer internal policies and procedures.
- Managed and modernized a departmental operating budget in excess of $100,000
- Created and completed a departmental self-study for five year program review.

- Hired two new administrative assistants and onboarded with clarified roles and responsibilities.
- Hired four tenure-line positions, three full-time instructors, multiple lecturer/adjunct positions, and our first competitive Doctoral Teaching Fellowships.
- Mentored junior faculty, nominated colleagues for awards, and managed six applications for tenure and/or promotion.
- Hired and supervised adjunct faculty, coordinating summer efforts to meet enrollment demands.
- Worked with Registrar to mitigate enrollment surges brought about by TCU recruitment windfalls.
- Coordinated efforts with Core Curriculum, Honors Program, and related units.
- Served as Building Manager during Reed Hall renovation, orchestrating relocation and return of all facets of personnel and material.
- Hosted 10-15 visiting writers/scholars annually, also inaugurating the Live Oak Reading Series
- Established Christine Salmon Gauthier Apprenticeship, a donor supported undergraduate internship for departmental operations and communications.

Chair, Institutional Review Board for Human Subjects Research, TCU (Fall 2009–Summer 2010)

- Fostered an ethical research environment while overseeing IRB procedures and compliance with federal regulations and requirements (45 CFR 46, National Institutes of Health).
- Served as liaison between Office of Research staff, the IRB, and the broader research community.
- Adjudicated all incoming research protocols, including approving, requiring modifications, or disapproving them—delegating expedited review authority to IRB members.
- Ensured 12 member IRB (research faculty and advocates) was qualified, reviewed protocols promptly, and thanked frequently for managing a heavy workflow.
- Chaired monthly meetings to ensure thorough yet efficient review of protocols.
- Ensured clear and timely communication of decisions, directives, and sanctions.

Associate Chair, Department of English, TCU (Fall 2008–Spring 2009)

- Led faculty and graduate students through the creation, development, approval, and implementation of new Rhetoric and Composition PhD program.
- Supported Chair in administrative matters, curriculum/scheduling; special events; assessment; alumni cultivation; event planning; and student interaction at all levels.
- Maintained and developed departmental website and created promotional media for programming.

Director of Undergraduate Studies, Department of English, TCU (Fall 2006–Spring 2008)

- Led faculty through the development, approval, and implementation of new Writing BA program.
- Organized faculty scheduling of classes, curriculum changes, new classes, and student advising.
- Conducted summer advising and led event programming for Major/Minor Fair and other events.
- Maintained and developed departmental website and created promotional media for programming.

Founding Co-Director (Fall 2006); Interim Director (Spring 2007), Center for Digital Expression [orig. New Media Writing Studio], TCU

- Co-wrote successful TCU Vision in Action (Strategic Initiative Fund) grant to fund multimedia lab creation (equipment and software), staff, events, and summer faculty development program.
- Coordinated with Information Technology and Facilities to construct new Studio computer lab.

- Managed all budget and procurement, from equipment purchase and software licensing to promotional goods and ongoing program expenses.
- Led student and faculty workshops, developed software support materials, and supervised interns.

Graduate Teaching Coordinator II, Core Writing Program, University of Nevada (1999–2000)

- Mentored graduate students and adjunct faculty in teaching and classroom management.
- Led writing pedagogy workshops for faculty and graduate students.
- Co-led portfolio assessment project and report writing.

Assistant Director, Center for Holocaust, Genocide & Peace Studies, University of Nevada (1997–1998)

- Advised students for undergraduate minor, and promoted programs at tabling events.
- Supported event planning throughout the year, with ongoing community board member correspondence.
- Maintained and developed departmental website and created promotional media.
- Wrote copy, edited, and completed all production for CenterNews newsletter.
